

Service Category: Outreach

Name of Organization: PB&J (Peanut Butter and Jelly) Outreach

Name of Person verifying Co-Curricular hours: Beth Stallman

Phone: 720-273-3009

Email: bstallma@med.wayne.edu

Off site location Contact Person(s) for Co-Curricular Name: Kirk Zell

Address: 47650 N Territorial Rd, Plymouth, 48170

Phone: 734-260-3895

Email: kirk.zell@gfs.com

Website: www.pbjoutreach.org

Faculty Advisor: Dr. Walker

This program is able to accommodate10-15 students

Description/Duties:

PBJ (Peanut Butter and Jelly) Outreach Inc. is an diverse group of people volunteering their time and services to provide food, clothing, and basic social services to homeless people as well as those who are below the poverty level, living in the depressed and impoverished areas of the Metropolitan Detroit area, including the Cass Corridor section of inner city Detroit. The services are provided to all, regardless of race, religion (or lack thereof), gender or national origin.

Commitment:

Available Days: 3 hours on Saturdays

Preferred Hours: Prior to Noon (6am-9am)

Activities for Medical Students:

Package and serve food to homeless and impoverished citizens of Detroit.

Interact with underprivileged population of Detroit.

Opportunity to communicate health education information to clients/patients.

Observing Agency/Organization staff interacts with clients/patients.