

Stanley M. Kaplan

Medical Student Essay Contest

The University of Cincinnati
Department of Psychiatry announces the 20th Annual *Stanley M. Kaplan Essay Contest for medical students
*Stanley M. Kaplan, M.D., Professor of Psychiatry, Emeritus (1960-2011) UC College of Medicine

Contest requirements

Entries may include topical essays, case reports, review articles or original research that was conducted in medical school for which the student was first author. Entries will be judged on the basis of creativity, knowledge of psychiatry, style, and contribution to understanding important problems in any of the biological, psychological or social dimensions of psychiatry.

There is no entry application and no standard format or length restriction for entries. All entries should be a single file that includes a title page with the student's contact information (must include both email address and phone number). In addition, the file name for the entry should include the student's last name. If a student would like to include a cover letter, this should be included in the same file as the entry submission.

Contest prizes

The winner will be awarded a cash prize of $500 and two runners-up will be awarded $250 each.

Contest deadline

The entry deadline is JUNE 30, 2012. Entries must be submitted to Mary Ann Schmidt by email (maryann.schmidt@uc.edu).
