FOUNDATION

Share your personal essay on how a patient safety event impacted your learning and growth.

Individuals are invited to submit essays that will be judged by NPSF. Six winners of this prestigious award will be selected and will receive $5,000 plus registration and travel expenses to the NPSF Annual Congress.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE:

All third-year and fourth-year medical students, and first-year residents who were in a hospital setting as of June 2011 or later.

WHAT IS REQUIRED:

Submit an essay (500-1,000 words) explaining your most instructional patient safety event ... one that resulted in a personal transformation. Go to <http://npsfcongress.org/young-physicians-award/> to complete the online form. The award will be presented at the NPSF Annual Congress, May 23-25, 2012, in National Harbor, MD (Washington, DC).

WHEN IS THE DEADLINE:

Essays are due by 5:00pm ET, Thursday, February 9, 2012.
No phone or mailed submissions will be accepted.
