The Kado Family Clinical Skills Center provides healthcare students and professionals with educational resources focused on the development & improvement of clinical performance. Our specific goals include:

- Developing and executing quality experiential learning programs at the undergraduate, graduate, and continuing healthcare education levels.
- Conducting research that contributes evidence to enhance healthcare education.
- Partnering with healthcare providers to provide assessments and training initiatives that enhance patient safety.
- Fostering strong community outreach programs that educate and inspire the individuals we serve.
Parts Trainers:

Central Venous Catheter
Lumbar Puncture
Thoracentesis
Arthrocentesis
Paracentesis
Advanced Injection Arm

Simulators:

Harvey cardiopulmonary simulator
METI HPS 6 high-fidelity human patient simulator
METI ECS adult emergency care simulator
METI PECS pediatric emergency care simulator
Laerdal BabySim infant simulator
Available 2011:
Noelle birthing simulator with Baby Hal
Neonatal Hal infant simulator

OSCEs and Standardized Patient Programming: We have an extensive case catalog available to clients. Cases can be tailored to fit individual program needs. All cases are reflective of ACGME competencies.