Margherio Conference Center
Light lunch will be provided

“What the Eyes Don’t See: A Story of Crisis, Resistance, and Hope in an American City”

- A 2018 New York Times 100 Notable Book, NPR Science Friday Best Science Book of 2018, and Michigan Notable Book of 2019
- A riveting, beautifully rendered account of a shameful disaster that became a tale of activism and hope, the story of a city on the ropes that came together to fight for justice, self-determination, and the right to build a better world for their—and all of our—children.

Presented by the Author

Mona Hanna-Attisha, MD, MPH, FAAP

- Founder and Director of the Michigan State University and Hurley Children’s Hospital Pediatric Public Health Initiative
- Testified twice before the United States Congress and awarded the Freedom of Expression Courage Award by PEN America
- Named Time magazine’s 100 Most Influential People in the World for uncovering the Flint Water Crisis and leading recovery efforts.
- Appeared on CNN, MSNBC, BBC and other media outlets championing the cause of children in Flint and beyond
- Founding donor of the Flint Child Health and Development Fund (flintkids.org).
