

Women in Medicine and Science Advisory Committee

The WSU SOM Women in Medicine & Science Group

welcomes all members of our community to join us for a Special Interactive Discussion
February 13, 2019 from 12:00-1:00 PM, Mazurek Medical Education Commons Room 240/241
Light lunch will be provided

"What can we gain from professional development conferences?"

Beth Berger, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor WSU Department of Ophthalmology, Visual & Anatomical Sciences; Dr. Berger studies the pathogenesis of ocular diseases, her current projects include bacterial keratitis and diabetic retinopathy.

Latonya Riddle-Jones, M.D.

Assistant Professor WSU Internal Medicine and Pediatrics; Associate director of the Tri-County Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program (BCCCP)

Society of General Internal Medicine's Leadership in Health Policy program scholar

Angulique Outlaw, Ph.D.

Associate Professor WSU Department of Family Medicine & Public Health Sciences
Director of Prevention Services for Horizons Project, a grant-funded comprehensive continuum of care for at-risk youth

Anne Messman, M.D.

Clinical Assistant Professor WSU Emergency Medicine
Vice Chair for Education for the Department of Emergency Medicine
Clinical practice at Detroit Receiving and Sinai-Grace Hospitals.

Claire Pearson, M.D., M.P.H.

Associate Professor WSU Emergency Medicine
Director of Clinical Research (EM) Ascension St. John. Special interest in Public Health, trauma/pain, social/behavioral health.

During this interactive discussion, these WSU professors will present and discuss how to obtain professional development opportunities, how to make the most of them, and highlights of their professional development learning experiences.

Who Should Attend:

SOM Faculty, Staff & Trainees

Please Click Here to RSVP today

Seating is limited